An Indiscriminate Reduction in Price of Dry Goods at W. D. Clark & Co.'s.

of Dry Goods at W. B. Clark & Co. whose store is centrally located at $11 Market brace and lymnsylvania avenue northwest, will make an indiscriminate refunction in overy denautrous of those large and well-selected stock or assaonable dry goods for the host thirty days. Among they large and indiscriminate list of reductions we may be permitted to mention their destrable all wood brane comb names, subtains for bathing suits and laches white, ore. The former place of these new summer feathers were because the reduction price is only 25. The printing hide has been need as all a great exicult, severing the prices in fixed a great exicult, severing the prices in feath at this reference. Call early and secure the appropriate ways the early wind canches the choicest worms, so in this case, to a large outent, is also applicable that is, the large outent, is also applicable that is, the large outent bargains.

Rudden's Refrigerators, Haby Carriages, Etc., Etc. This responsible installment establishment is centrally located at 1981 and 192 Seventh street northwest, and is now making our prices on Refrigerators, Raby Carriages, and 211 other lines of goods needed for the summer. Goods sold on a cash basis on easily raid [heal] liments.

Houghton & Co.'s Unprecedented In-The cheapest ret. Just read their bargains in jurniture: I cak burean, I bedstead, I washestand, I pair of feather pillows, I extra large oak lable, I me reed chairs, I wire matteres—all there sortleachie and destrable articles, useful every day, for the small som of $20.00. Again, they offer 9 chairs and a six foot extension lable for the surprising and unprecedented price of $10.00. And again, can you spars the small sum of $50° If no, see our recee oak dining room saits, it is a dalay, and the price is almost nominal.

INDIGNANT CITIZENS.

They Send a Pretty Sharp Letter to President Burt.

The citizens of Mount Pleasant have teceived a letter from President Hurt of the Washington and Georgetown Rallroad stating that after a trial the com-pany thinks that the travel does not show any necessity for running more cars on the Fourteenth street line just

The committee of citizens have transmitted a reply to President Hurt in which they say that they understand that President Hurt's letter is only an expression of his opinion that the citizins of Mount Pleasant do not need more cars, and not a refusal of the Board to grant them better railway facilities, and they assert that the rail-toad company did not carry as many bassengers to the mile from Georgetown to the Navy Yard as they did over the Mount Pleasant distance, which is only one tenth the distance from George-town to the Navy Yard. They claim that if the three-cent tax is taken off the travel will more than double over the They also claim that they are compelled to pay three cents more than passengers on the other lines of the company to go the same distance, and my it would be a satisfaction to them to read the subterfuges the company would have to resort to to defend them-

They end by domanding better service. particularly at night: immediate stop-page of the three-cent tax, and that the through rate be the same as on any other of the Washington and George-town lines, and say that if the company declines to supply their needs after fully understanding them, they will govern themselves accordingly.

The letter is signed by John G. Judd, chairman of the committee.

THE "BLUE RIBBON."

AN INSIGNIA OF INCOMPARABLE

What It Means and How You'll

Rnow It. He promised to bring me a piece of bine

To the up my bounts brown hate, Such was the rash promise of a lovesick Scotch lad named Johnnie, who went to a fair and sought to "square" himself with his R. C., who otherwise might have sung more petulantly than

This is one of the popular sentimental traditions of the blue ribbon, and I repeet it for its antiquity as much as I kapise it for its nonsense But the blue ribbon has figured in the istory of the chivalric times, and the est picture of Christopher Columbus I ver saw represented him in a very indish pair of blue ribbon garters. Ohristopher was very particular, I understand, in the matter of garters. He never wore them on shipboard; because blue garters would have provoked a minced-meat mutiny as quick as a bandana will elicit enthusiasm in a bull-but if he'd only known it he might have got the votes of all the aboriginal repub-licans, if he'd only worn them when he was on shore here a swapping lies and romises with the susceptible and sadly redulous Red men.

But in this case I want to fix on your ainds a familiar association of ideas. An acute sense of sight is a fit accompaniment for a cultivated sense of taste. Then follow me closely. I want you to imagine the most delicate shade of blue ribbon encircling the neck of a bottle filled with a fluid of the purest, most transparent, and most brilliant amber hue. Can you conceive a har-mony more perfect than blue and am-ber? The picture is no more engaging than the reality. The amber fluid is the "Select" table beer, brewed by the Pabst Brewing Company of Milwaukee, and the "Blue Ribbon" is the designating insignia of that excellence with which it has been crowned by the judges of the world's greatest exposi-

Now you're into the secret. But there's something more to it. Tals "Select" beer is essentially a table and family drink, and the most palatable of summer beverages. It also possesses those pecultar qualities of a high grade of mall brewing which are invaluable to the convaiescent, the lavalid, the debilltated mother and the untoned hu-man system generally. It is a beverage you can ask for, confidently, in any first-class hotel or cafe, and it is something ou should not be without on your sideoard at home.

It can only be obtained in bottles, and if you would like a case sent to your bemedrop a line to Captain R. S. Widdicombe, the manager of the Washing-tion branch of the Palist Company, at No. 703 North Capitol street, or call him up on telephone No. 273, and your order will be filled at once.

The Palist beer is largely used in this city, and under Capital Widdicombe's able direction the output is constantly increasing. John Hacron.

Editor Critic: Seeing an art'cle on insting in your to day's paper-views of Archdeacon Farrar and Cardinal of Archdeacon Farrar and Cardinal Newman—as a Presbyterian I claim both to have views differing from Christ's teachings to his Apostles, viz. When they asked him as to their mission to heal, etc., Christ's answer, want of Faith, which can only come by fasting and prayer. Sixty years ago, when I was a young man, our church practiced fasting on Sectional grounds. when I was a young man, our church practiced fasting on Scriptural grounds, viz.: Having four (quarterly) Sacramental seasons in the year, preparatory exercises, one day preceding by fasting and prayer. Fasting, as then practiced, was to abstain from full daily meals to the bodily weak of all ages were recommended. A little food, such as a cup of tea and a biscuit, or a siles of tread the benefit was apparent as all cup of tea and a biscutt, or a silce of tread, the benefit was apparent as abiting the communicant to a better approach to the Lord's table in initiation of Christ and his tweive Apostles, we being followers of Christ.

SHE WANTS A RECEIVER,

And Claims to be the Wife of Joannes Bochon of this City,

A curious story is to'd in a bill filed with the elerk of the Equity Court yes-terday afternoon. For years past Joannes Rochon has been known to the feminine portion of Washington society feminine portion of Washington society as the hairdresser par excellence of this city. Much of the success of the business was due to the personal supervision of Madame Rochon, as the lady was called, who was regarded always as the wife of the hairdresser. But another Madame Rochon appeared, and in a Mil filed yesterday by Judge Pelham, states that she was married to Joannes Rochon in Lyons in December, 1869, and became the mether of four children as the result of such marriage. Two of these children are now living. she did: "Oh, dear, what can the mat-

Her personal attractions, however, soon resulted in her being promoted to be bookkeeper and cashier in the hairdressing and perfamery shop conducted by Rochon. In 1879 Madame is came very ill, and Rochon was induced to dispense with the girl's services. It is alleged in the bill that he engaged apartments elsewhere for her and constantly visited her, spending all his time with her when not at the store. In 1881 Joannes collected all the his time with her when not at the store.

In 1881 Joannes collected all the property, including the stock in the store and money in bank, and left for Parls, taking the German girl with him. From Parls they went to London and thence to Washington.

Here, the bill alleges, Rochon has always introduced Mary Wagner as his wife, has made out deeds in her name, and on the 10th of December, 1884, had christened at St. Matthew's Church, an infant daughter under the name of
